CHEYENNE AND ARAPAHO TRIBES FEDERAL AID GRANT CONCHO AGENCY

TYPE: Graduate and Undergraduate

PURPOSE: The United States Government, through the Bureau of Indian Affairs, provides annual educational assistance to Indian students to enable them to attend institutions of higher learning. The Cheyenne and Arapaho Tribes, pursuant to P.L. 93-638, have contracted to administer this program for tribal members enrolled at the Concho Agency.

ELIGIBILITY: In order to qualify for an award, applicant must be certified by the Concho Agency to be at least $\frac{1}{4}$ or more degree Cheyenne and Arapaho Indian; be a high school graduate or GED graduate; approved for admission by the college/university; in need of financial aid; and give reasonable assurance they will be successful in completing a 4-year college degree program. Summer and part-time students may be considered for assistance.

AMOUNT OF AWARDS: Based on unmet need and availability of funds. Grants to part-time students may be limited.

APPLICATION DEADLINE: JUNE 1st for first semesters, NOVEMBER 1st for second semesters, and APRIL 1st for summer semesters (for those students who need to attend summer school in order to graduate). All late applications must be accompanied by an appeal letter.
